ing that the name had been adopted by the place names committee.

Hanton, 19, works for a Collins Street firm of chartered accountants as a comp-tometrist.

Maureen, a keen rower, is sponsored in the quest by her home club, Essendon.

A career girl and socialite, Maureen entered the quest for the chance of meeting other people interested in charity work.

A.L.P. CALLS FOR COUNCILLOR TO LEAVE POST

The Altona Branch of the A.L.P. last week called in a letter for the resignation of Cr. Harry Weaver, on the ground of his non-attendance at council, committee and Board of Works meetings.

Cr. Les Crofts, seconded by Cr. Pat Lynch, moved a vote of confidence in Cr. Weaver, which was passed unanimously.

Cr. Weaver dismissed the move as petty rivalry.
"I defeated Harrison (Mr. Bob Harrison secretary of the local A.L.P.) in a council by-election in 1969," he said.

At the General Purposes meeting of the council the previous week, A.L.P. member for Melbourne West, Mr. A. W. Knight was invited, in part to clarify statements he had made about council.

It is understood that at a meeting behind closed doors, Cr. Les Crofts said Mr. Knight had made a statement that council had been lethargic in its approach on pollution control and that comments had been made on the legal aspects leading to council decision.

He said that an inference could be drawn from these comments that the council had taken the wrong approach.

Mr. Knight explained his statements, made at the Pollution Abatement Society meeting.

He said he had an obligation to the electorate and that in bringing what he believed to be the facts before the public he could carry out his duty.

He said he was not responsible to the council, but would be pleased to receive any representations which council cared to make.

Mr. Knight pointed out that some requests had not been forwarded through the correct parliamentary channels and asked council to watch this in future, in the interest of parliamentary ethics.

He asked as a matter of courtesy that he receive a copy of correspondence forwarded to MLA's.

Cr. Weaver said there was no connection between Mr. Knight's and Mr. Harrison's statements.

He said he had no intention of resigning from the council or from the position as Board of Works Commissioner.

"As far as I'm concerned the council's my interest," he said.

Cr. Weaver said "I've given other interests away Altona and the Historical Society to make time for council work."

He said there was some truth in Mr. Harrison's statements but he had attended council during his official absence and had attended at Board of Works meetings.

Mr. Harrison said that Altona's sewerage programme had slowed down.

Cr. Weaver said that the Chairman of the Board of Works, Mr. A. Croxford had received a deputation from Altona, and had the area under consideration.

A Labor Party former councillor Mr. Allan Bond rose at the end of last week's council meeting and asked Cr. Weaver to dissociate him with the move.

Cubs practice for cub playtime

The 3rd Altona Scout Group Cubs are hard at work practising for their Cub playtime which will be held in the Altona North Technical School hall on June 26.

Last month the 2nd Leongatha Group made a return visit to Altona.

The following have attained stars and badges:

G. Burnell entertainer, House orderly; D. Hunt, entertainer, first aid, swimmer and Leaping Wolf; W. Zondervan, house orderly; D. McKee, athlete, entertainer, first aid and Leaping Wolf; B. Woods, collector, cyclist, swimmer, guide and Leaping Wolf; P. Ellis, entertainer, swimmer; G. Sampson, athlete, book reader, first aid, observer and Leaping Wolf; C. Lowden athlete, entertainer, house orderly and Leaping Wolf.

The following 3rd Altona Cubs have moved up into the scouts: P. Clement, C. Mounas, G. Cox, P. Matheson, D. Schmidt all received their First Stars. S. Bosccke — First Star and book reader. G. Patterson, collector and First Star, L. McKee, First Star and athlete, B. Orchard, collector and guide, P. Cox, swimmer.

STAR GAZE

A minute's silence was observed at the last Altona Council meeting to mark the death of former councillor, Mr. Frederick Rush. Cr. John Mellors represented the council at the funeral and the city's flag was flown at half mast as a mark of respect.

Good Samaritan, Matron Smith, of Altona District Hospital adopted a stray dog recently which was about to have a litter.

She said the dog was pregnant and emaciated. She distributed the pups to doctors and nurses at the hospital but kept the bitch herself.

This week the dog disturbed a prowler near matron's quarters.

One good turn ...

After listening to the PMG's Dial-A-Disc this week, sponsored by the Egg Board, I couldn't help thinking that we Altonians might be more comfortable going to town on an egg than on the present dog boxes.

On the subject of efficiency, Altona Council completed their meeting in near record time last week — 1½ hours.

Having covered many other councils it is a pleasure to attend and report each meeting.

The good people of this week go to Miss Cynthia Paltridge, Altona City's librarian and her staff.

A well run efficient library, staffed by pleasant helpful people.

COUNCIL BUYS CHURCH FROM METHODISTS

Altona City Council has bought the Methodist church in Sixth Avenue, Altona
North, for $28,000.

Council is believed to want to use the hall and grounds for community purposes.

It has been suggested by councillors in the past that it could be used as a play centre, a police court and a future elderly citizens club.

Spare a thought for missionaries

Two men already well known to Altona residents are Elder Lonie Potton and Elder Paul Rothe, rather affable young American missionaries currently visiting our town.

Both young, clean cut Americans, the boys faithfully pedal their cycles around taking — not selling — their brand of religion to all interested listeners.

Unlike some in the past, the boys aren't high pressure salesmen and ask the lady of the house if they could come back and discuss the subject when the man of the house is home.

Spare a thought for them on a rainy day.

Both boys have given two years of their lives in missionary work.

While they're here both have to support themselves.

Altona man's lucky escape

An Altona man had a lucky escape when his late model car mounted the sea-wall on the Esplanade, and plunged on to rocks, impaling the car.

He is Mr. Eric Gott, of Charles St., Altona West.

It took ambulance men and police 20 minutes to free Mr. Gott, who was trapped between the dashboard and the floor.

Police say the vehicle failed to take a turn near the intersection of Millers Road and the Esplanade, mounted the sea-wall and became airborne.

It landed 30 ft. away on an outcrop of rocks.

Police said had the car landed on its roof the driver would have been killed instantly.

He was taken to the Footscray and District Hospital, but was released with slight injuries.

Senior Constable Baker of Altona police, attended.

DOUBLE LINES

Double white lines will be painted at the intersection of Hall Street and Simcock Avenue.

This follows a suggestion by the traffic engineering and safety department of the RACV.

Several residents contacted the RACV to complain that there was danger of head-on collisions at the intersection.

South Australian trip planned by school

Thirty-six children and two teachers from Altona High will go on a nine-day trip to South Australia and the Northern Territory during the next school holidays.

They will visit Adelaide, Coober Pedy, Alice Springs and Ayers Rock.

The tour has been organised as part of the students social and educational curriculum.

ALTONA NORTH TECH

Like most of our schools they are involved in mid-year exams.

Four boys: I. McKerracker, G. Stirling, E. Keranen, and B. Wallis, recently took part in mathematical games at Melbourne University.

They did well to come fourth against strong competition.

The school has lost a maths-science teacher, Mr. Dave Ridyrd, who has resigned from the department.

The principal, Mr. R. McInnes, said it appeared teachers did not want to live in the western suburbs.

ALTONA NORTH HIGH

There will be no elections for the advisory council positions at the school, which had been planned.

The exact number of nominations were received to fill the vacancies. Elected to the council are Mrs. Jean Hillier, of Estelle Court, Mr. Edward Baker, The circle, Mr. Albert Bryan, Murphy Street and Mr. John Mayne of McIntosh Road, all of Altona.

Only exception is Mr. John Odgers of Maddox Road, Newport.

The Altona City Council's representative will be Cr. Ray Richards.

The school is quiet at the moment due to mid-year examinations.

Reports will be handed out on June 29 and a parents and teachers meeting on July 7.

ST. LEO'S

A poor man's mass will be held at St. Leo's church tomorrow.

Parishioners are invited to bring along small gifts of clothing, toys and groceries, which will be donated to the St. Vincent De Paul organisation.

On the blackboard

The school has recently purchased some percussion instruments with the money raised from the cake stall and beetle drive competition. The young footballers of the school are practising hard for their game against Sacred Heart, Williamstown soon.

The principal Sister Francis Paul said should like to thank Mr. Ray Cahalin for coaching the boys in his spare time.

ST. MARY'S

The schools Parents and Friends organisation met last Monday night to discuss their programme for second term.

Topics discussed during the evening were the parish ball, the coming bottle drive on Sunday week and the men's smoke night in July. Anyone requiring information should contact the secretary Mr. Muller through the school.

The school competed in the lightning premiership in netball and football at the weekend, but didn't bring home any trophies. The B. netball team had two wins.

SEAHOLME STATE SCHOOL

Four new classrooms have been occupied in the school this week.

The principal, Mr. Murray Edmonds, said that a new staff room was nearing completion.

He said that a migrant English course at the school was doing extremely well in the initial period.

"About 90 migrants come to the school every day from the Westons Hostel, of whom about 40 come from non-English speaking countries.

"Teachers here have been taking extra classes to free two teachers Mrs. Nettleton and Mrs. Buckingham to teach the class," he said.

The National Road Safety Council will address pupils at the school this week and show them a number of safety films.

The talks are a part of the overall road safety scheme in local schools.

A beetle night was held at the school this week by the Mothers Club.

The principal Mr. Mad-dern said that all who attended enjoyed themselves.

Any mother who would like to join the club can contact the president Mrs. Greig or the secretary Mrs. Sullivan through the school.

The school played Seaholme in sport this week.

They won the first eighteen football, lost the second eighteen match, won both the netball games and were defeated at soccer.

The principal Mr. Mad-dern said that any parents wishing to enrol their children for the 1972 school year can see him any day now, between 9 a.m. and 3.30 p.m.

He asked that parents bring some formal proof of their child's age.

ALTONA PRIMARY

More than $4000 has been raised toward the building of the school's new library.

A letter was sent to twelve parents who had offered interest free loans thanking them, but informing them that fund-raising had been successful.

BROOKLYN PRIMARY

The infant grades of the school visited the Botanic Gardens this week.

Miss Prower, one of the school's staff who has been in Geelong Hospital has returned, bringing the school to full strength.

ST. PAUL'S

The school will hold their ball on June 25 at Shirley Park Lodge.

All parents and friends are cordially invited to attend.

Tickets are $10.50 a double, and is scheduled to start at 8 p.m.

The team was presented with a framed certificate by the Mayor, Cr. Doug Grant.

Youth club change?

President of Altona Youth Club, Cr. L. W. J. Crofts asked the council last week to meet with Mr. Ellery Hamilton-Smith of the Victorian Association of Youth Clubs and discuss improvements to the Altona clubs activities.

Cr. Crofts said that the club was experiencing a drop in attendances and needed more adult leaders.

He said the council is always getting applications for the installation of machines and billiard cations for the installation of pinball machines and billiard tables.

"After conferring with other councils we agreed that such pastimes attracted the wrong types," he said.

"We can't adopt a negative approach," he said, "It indicates a need for entertainment."

Cr. Crofts said the youth club at present catered for youngsters with table tennis, billiards, basketball, square dancing, weight lifting and judo, for both boys and girls.

"The billiards are a good example, the cues are broken faster than we can replace them," he said.

Cr. Crofts said that Mr. Hamilton-Smith, who is at the moment working with a municipal council, might suggest that the club become a family centre, where all groups would be catered for.

THEFT FROM VAN

Police are seeking thieves who broke into a van parked in a Civic Parade garage, stealing $80 worth of goods, including a rifle.

The van, owned by Mr. Robert Jones, Civic Parade, Altona, was robbed of tools, blankets, socks, a tyre and a rifle.

Police are seeking also information that will lead to the arrest of the person or persons who willfully damaged a glass door in Pier Street last week.

The door, valued at $30, was broken at Herberts Pharmacy.

Nothing was stolen.

No APL building permit

Despite the recommendation of the surveyor, Altona Council rejected Altona Petrochemicals application for permission to build a two-storey modular office building on Kororoit Creek Road, Altona.

Opposing the motion Cr. Ian Stewart said that the office would be unsightly, even with the recommended brick base.

The motion was seconded by Cr. Harry Weaver.

Val's Column

Hello Girls,

May has seen an upsurge in wig sales and with the latest in wig styles still arriving, here is your chance to take advantage of a style just for you. Longed for shoulder-length hair? Try on Debutante with its long, luxuriant curls and waves brushing your shoulders. Almost requires no combing, sweeps straight back off the face — directly your friends, use a little of your own hair trickly in front and they'll never guess its a wig.

For the "Mods" there is Piccadilly—short-cropped top which frames the face and long, long back and sides. It can be worn in pigtails, plaited, or as a bun as well as its normal long casual look. It's as the name suggests, a London Dolly look. For a wig that suits all ages and can be adapted to many styles — Jackie. Softly waves and so easily styled off the face or with a fringe — a long tapered neckline gives a nice finishing touch to Jackie. Then there is a cute "spare hair" item — the first breakthrough in synthetic accessories. They clip on. They add instant glamor, or blend in to give added height or thickness. Three lengths — the shortest is great as a bun, or for giving height. The middle length is extremely versatile — comb it into loops or just brush into your own hair for greater fullness. The long one is a ready made pony-tail or can be teamed with long hair for extra thickness — and a real breakthrough. No more headaches or pressure — just ask for the two-and-a-half. Yes, just 2½ years of wig, extremely light because of a new wig base and fibre. Style wise and color wise this wig is the mature woman's dream.

For your own hair styling — now to neaten the neckline, flatten the fringe, or make the tidiest cheek curl — hair styling tape. The newest method for styling specially developed to set hair quickly and without discomfort. Sticks firmly to your hair and skin yet releases easily and cleanly, leaving no sticky feeling. Try hair styling tape today and get a better finish to your set.

Bye.

NO CROSSING

The Melbourne Harbor Trust won't get a pedestrian crossing in Nelson Place near its workshops.

Carmela Beauty Salon

PHONE 391 2417
 17 HALL ST., NEWPORT
 (Upstairs ANZ Bank Building)

A traffic count conducted by council's Traffic Officer has shown there are not enough pedestrians to warrant a crossing at this location.

The Harbor Trust applied to council to have a crossing made near its yards after an employee was struck in a hit-and-run accident.

The Senior Traffic Officer Mr. Boyce reported to a meeting of council's Traffic Committee on May 24 that only 52 pedestrians crossed Nelson Place near the Trust's yard between 7 a.m. and 9 a.m. on May 18.

Mr. Boyce reported that, according to the Road Safety and Traffic Authority pedestrian crossing were not needed unless at least 60 people per hour crossed at the proposed crossing site.

He also reported that council's traffic count had shown that 1047 cars used that part of Nelson place.

According to the Road Safety and Traffic Authority's estimates, at least 1200 cars should pass the site before a crossing was necessary.

"SENIORS" UNHAPPY

Council's decision to defer the question of building extensions at the Senior Citizens Club until the Estimates meeting in November has disappointed the club.

The president, Mr. Bennett, has written to council saying that it will now be well into 1972 before anything can be done to the buildings.

He said by that time costs will probably have increased.

THE RUN AROUND

Williams town council has decided it does not object to athletes running around the perimeter of the Newport Oval.

This follows a letter from the Williamstown Amateur Athletic Club, informing council that its athletes have been crowded off the oval.

NEWPORT SUCCESS

The Newport Branch of the Australian Natives Association held its first major social function for the winter season last Thursday.

Teams from the Yarraville and Sunshine branches played indoor bowls.

The tournament is held annually by the Metropolitan Committee.

Newport No. 1 team (Mr. G. Buttery, capt.) won comfortably from Sunshine 19-9, while Newport No. 2 (Mr. L. Minett, capt.) were a little better than Yarraville at 17-14.

The winning teams were congratulated at an excellent supper provided by the Ladies' Committee.

CAR VEERED AND HIT ME

—man tells court

A man told Williamstown Court he had to flatten himself against a parked car to avoid being struck by another car.

Ronald Harvey Shields, of 100 Civic Parade, Altona, was giving evidence on a careless driving charge against a 22-year-old Altona man.

Wayne Salisbury, of 147 Railway Place, Altona, did not appear in court to answer charges of having driven while his blood alcohol level was greater than .05 per cent. and having driven carelessly.

Shields told the court he was driving along Blyth Street, Altona, on April 11 when he saw a friend driving in the opposite direction.

He said they both stopped and he walked across the road to have a chat.

Shields said: "I was leaning on the driver's door when I noticed a car coming towards us."

"It was close to the middle of the road, but when it was about 100 yards away it veered towards us," he said.

"By the time I realised it was going to hit me, it was too late to get around the front of the car," Shields said.

He added he just had time to throw his arms over the roof of the car before the car hit him.

He said he was hit across the buttocks with what he believed was the car's door handles.

Shields said his friend chased the other car while he went to Altona police station.

He said his friend brought Salisbury to the police station, Salisbury told him he was sorry he hit him, but he was a bit drunk.

Constable Glen Ellis said he interviewed Salisbury shortly after the incident, but Salisbury denied hitting shields.

He produced a breathalyser certificate to show Salisbury's blood alcohol level had been .195 per cent. — or the equivalent of about 15 seven-ounce glasses of beer.

Shields, a truck owner-driver, claimed $25 costs for appearing as a witness.

He gave evidence from the witness box that he earned $25 a load for carrying metal on contract, and would have missed carting one or two loads while he was in court.

Mr. F. Clancy, SM, fined Salisbury $75 for exceeding .05 per cent. and $75 for careless driving.

He also ordered Salisbury to pay Shields $25 costs and 20 cents good conduct money.

NEW ROBES

Williamstown's Town Clerk, Mr. Morley has been asked by council to obtain samples of various cloths for new robes.

The sample cloths will be shown to councillors at the next Public Works Committee meeting.

OLD MAN CAUGHT NEAR SMASHED SHOP DOOR*But missing $600 was never found*A 72-year-old man found near a smashed shop door appeared at Footscray Court on Thursday charged with having stolen $600 from the shop.

The man was caught only 20 feet from the doorway by a nightwatchman after the quick action of a group of school children — but no money was found in his possession.

He had an iron bar in one hand and a bunch of receipts from the shop in the other.

One of his hands was bleeding from a cut and shattered glass was on the brim of his hat. About $600 allegedly was missing from the shop.

● Henry Cumming, of Shepherd Court, North Williamstown, pleaded not guilty to having stolen the $600 and having broken and entered the shop with intent to commit a felony.

Andrea Ginger, 13, a student at Footscray Girls' High School, told the court that she and three friends were walking along Nicholson Street about 9.50 p.m. on Saturday, April 10.

She and her sister Margaret, her cousin Ian Ballantyne and her friend Vicky Hewitt were between Irving and Paisley Streets on their way home from the Footscray Bowl.

GLASS

Ginger said I heard the sound of breaking glass and looked up the street, but she saw nothing.

They ran about 200 yards up Nicholson Street and saw a man enter the smashed doorway of the delicatessen at 139 Nicholson Street.

About a minute later they saw the man come out.

He had an iron bar in one hand and some pieces of paper in the other.

Ginger said a car came around the corner soon after the man went in and they flagged it down.

The driver got out, walked up to the man and after a short conversation placed him in the front of the car.

The children got into the back seat and they drove to the Footscray police station.

Mr. L. F. Efron, proprietor of the shop, said he had received a call from the police about 10.30 p.m.

He had gone to the shop and found the cash register drawer broken.

A bag containing $500 to $550 which he had left under his coat near the cash register when he left the shop at 12.30 p.m. that afternoon — was missing. His coat was on the floor.

Receipts which had been in the inside pocket of his coat were also missing.

Under cross-examination by Mr. Nankivell, Efron said there was no doubt that the money was gone and he had not recovered it.

Night patrolman Mr. C. Scott said he drove into Nicholson Street about 9.50 p.m. and was approached by four young people.

He noticed the smashed doorway and a man about 20 feet from it walking slowly away.

He had a bunch of papers in one hand and an iron bar in the other.

He walked up to the man, who dropped the papers. He noticed that the man's hand was cut.

He identified the man as Cumming.

He asked Cumming: "Did you break into this shop?"

Cumming replied: "No." Scott said no other person was on that side of the street.

Under cross-examination by Mr. Nankivell, Scott said Cumming had no chance to dispose of the money.

He said he had not found $600 in his car.

Detective D. Clark told the court that he believed broken glass found on Cumming's hat to be consistent with him having climbed through a smashed window.

Mr. Nankivell asked Clark: "What was your opinion of the defendant?"

Clark: "I smelt alcohol on his breath."

IT'S CHILD'S PLAY

Mark Dingey (left) and Andrew Gunn, both sixth graders at Newport Primary School, are shown how to paint by the Minister for Education, Mr. Thompson. The Minister was opening the new Arts and Crafts centre at the school.

More signs

"No Standing Anytime" signs will be put up on the western and northern sides of the Newport Oval.

This decision follows complaints about traffic congestion at the intersections of Woods, Market and Salisbury Streets on Saturday mornings.

The congestion is caused by cars parked in the area during meetings of the Williamstown Little Athletics Club.

Found near broken shop window

From P. 6

He is 72. Did you form the opinion that he was suffering from senile decay? — He looked like 72.

Did he appear to be stupid? — I formed that opinion.

And if he had gone through a broken window, this would have been stupid?

He is a feeble type of man? — Yes.

Mr. Nankivell (addressing the bench): "This case seems to centre around the $600. Did he do the breaking and entering?"

"I submit that Cumming went in after the breaking and entering and I submit that somebody other than Cumming broke in and took the money.

"The money was obviously taken before Cumming entered the shop. There is no clear evidence that he did the breaking."

Cumming then gave evidence that he had seen a broken window and went in to see what had happened.

He said when he came out a night watchman was walking towards him.

Mr. Nankivell: You never at any stage broke the window? Cumming:

No.

You didn't take anything? — No.

Did you have papers in your hand? — I'd had a lot to drink and I don't remember.

CHARGE DISMISSED

Mr. J. Aitken SM said: "I am not prepared to say that Cumming took the $600. There is a reasonable doubt about that, but I find that the breaking and entering did take place."

Addressing Cumming, Mr. Aitken said: "It is a tragic thing to see an old man like you in court on charges like this."

Mr. Aitken dismissed the larceny charge.

He placed Cumming on a $50 good behavior bond to appear at Footscray Court on June 9, 1972.

Mr. Aitken imposed the conditions that Cumming should have no drink and that he should have psychiatric treatment.

He did not record a conviction against Cumming, but ordered him to pay 80 cents costs.

Historical Society appeals for help

The Altona Historical Society has appealed to Altona Council for support.

The society is suffering from lack of members and a letter read at council described the last meeting of the club as a "drag". It read: "Nobody seems interested enough to tear themselves away from their television sets."

"There is much to be done in connection with Altona's history and if it is not done it may be too late".

The next general meeting of the Williamstown Historical Society will be held on Thursday, June 24, in the Mechanics Institute, Electra Street, Williamstown, at 8 p.m.

The speaker will be Mr. Cliff Gibson and his subject will be "My Williamstown."

As his family has been connected with Williamstown for several generations his talk should prove to be very interesting.

City of Footscray Historical Society, in conjunction with the Folk Lore Council of Australia are presenting a night of folk song and dance with leading Australian Folk-Singers on Saturday, June 19th, with log-fires and candlelight, wine and cheese, at "Ercildoune", Footscray, at 8 p.m. Adults $1. Bring stool or rug.

Mrs. Ron Cosgriff's son, Dean Gordon, was born in Williamstown Hospital on May 30. The Cosgriff family live in Newport.

Turf wicket is refused

The Spotswood Cricket Club won't get the extra turf wicket it wants for next cricket season.

Williamstown council has adopted a recommendation from its Reserves, Foreshores and Properties Committee, to advise the club that there are no alternative turf wickets available.

The club wanted an extra wicket so it could field another team next season.

NO PERMIT

Williamstown council has refused an application by Mr. and Mrs. L. Paravicini of 127 Mason Street for permission to build a carport.

The carport would be attached to and in front of the existing weatherboard house.

This is contrary to council's policy and recent Uniform Building Regulations amendments.

The curtain rises

By THISBE

Wednesday, July 14, to Saturday, July 17, will bring to the Williamstown Little Theatre's stage a "young happening" when Frank Wadd's production of Anne Jellicoe's play, "The Knack" is staged.

John Hatton-Davies, a cousin of Ivor Novello, has had a great deal of experience in the performing arts in the United Kingdom. "The Guinea Pig," "London Town," "David Copperfield," and "Dr. No" are a few of the 70 films in which he has performed.

He appeared in "Maidret," "No Hiding Place," "Sunday Night at the Palladium" and "The Somerset Maugham Hour" on English television. Last year he appeared as Nicholas Black in "The Devil's Advocate" on stage in Adelaide.

His appearance in "The Knack" will be his first appearance in Victoria.

Peter Berg, whose face has become familiar to television audiences for his acting in "Homicide," has played at W.L.T. in "Loss of Roses" and "The Miser."

He takes his theatrical career very seriously and to improve his theatre technique, he studied at the St. Martin's Theatre school for some time.

Steven Moore, competition tennis player, keen gardener and popular actor has created several memorable roles in "Black Comedy" and "White Liars," "Five Finger Exercise" and "Semi-Detached."

Victoria Waldon lives in an interesting house which is 120 years old. The charming little house is classified "B" by the National Trust, but a demolition order may see it come tumbling down in 11 months.

Victoria's part in "The Knack" will be her stage debut, although she has been interested in the theatre since her arrival in Williamstown three years ago.

The producer, Frank Wadd's, has performed in many Little Theatre plays. His production of "Taste of Honey" resulted in the female lead, Helen Kofoed, receiving the Cordell Award.

He is at present employed by Channel 0 where he has been working on "Matlock Police" on the production side. He is, of course, the mayor of Sunshine on that famous advertisement.

Bookings for the play open at E. S. Marr's Music Shop on Monday, June 28.

More flats planned

Williamstown council has received an application from a Footscray resident for permission to build a two-storey development of 16 flats.

Mr. R. R. Long, of 57 Paisley Street, Footscray, wants to build the flats on railway land at 53 Morris Street, Williamstown.

The application has been referred to council's planning committee.

FENCING CLUB

Fencing is an old and skilful sport which is becoming increasingly popular.

Western suburbs residents can learn to fence at the Scimitar fencing club, which is held on Saturdays in the St. Peters and St. Andrews church hall, Darnley Street, Braybrook.

The club was formed in 1969 with five members and this has grown to 30 in the three categories: Seniors, intermediate and juniors.

A number of A and B grade fencers have been produced and the club is a member of the Victorian Amateur Fencing Association.

Maitre John Fethers, who has represented Australia many times in Olympic and Empire Games and World Fencing Championships, is the club's coach and he is assisted by Robyn Newell, club secretary, and Gary Worsfield, club president.

Club meetings are held between 1.30 p.m. and 4.30 p.m. and anyone interested should contact Gary Worsfield on 698 7221.

Springvale holds Altona in soccer

Springvale has never been a happy hunting ground for Altona City and Saturday's game proved no exception.

In the opening 15 minutes it was all Altona, playing a great brand of open soccer.

They swept to a one-goal lead as Micevski swung over a great ball to Jim Baylish.

Baylish rose high above the pack to shoot home a great header, only to see the full-back punch the ball away. It was a certain penalty.

Ian Reid took the kick and it was a goal all the way.

On and on pressed the Maroons; Kean, Straybinger and Herman never let up and it looked as if Altona were going to score a barrow-load.

But Copley and Kean took too long to get rid of the ball and in a lightning raid the Vale had Hynes and Murray out of position.

Hans Vanderpole had no chance to stop the hard forward drive, which brought the equaliser.

Under the strain of loosing an easy goal like this, Altona lost all their polish.

To make matters worse, Ian Reid had to come off injured. Ackers took his place, but without Reidy the Altona forward line doesn't seem to be able to score.

Iorjanus was having a quiet game, Herman was his usual self.

It took two men to cover him.

Micevski was a star once again, his ability to swing a ball with both feet makes him a dangerous winger. If Iorjanus had stayed out on the wing he could have capitalised on two or three perfect crosses which beat the defence all ends up.

Springvale played kick and rush type of soccer, which upset Altona.

Ackers never got going and the longer the game went it was obvious that unless the Maroons passed the ball quicker there would be no more goals coming.

Straulunger had two glorious drives blocked on the goal line.

Herman had a go from close in which it a defender and rebounded clear.

How Micevski and Iorjanus missed a cross by Murray was beyond belief.

Only one yard out and an empty net, they both missed the great chance to bag the two points.

Springvale never gave up trying and could well have snatched the winner.

With the injury to Reid, Altona's only hope of scoring without him is to use the quick ball from the defence.

Herman and Iorjanus are speed merchants, not ball artists.

Reid won't be fit for next week's game at Prahran.

Will Altona change their style to suit these players

The Res. eleven reached the half-way stage undefeated, but how they struggled.

Only Collins showed any class, the rest struggled, the game finished in for a one-nil draw.

A great improvement will be needed to keep on the winning vein.

Life saving awards

Three Altona Life Saving Club members were awarded special trophies for their work in the club, at the annual presentation night.

The executive of the club congratulated Misses A. Shanahan, C. Boyle and B. Witseatt for their unselfish service.

The executive also thanks the trophy donors, which made the members work even harder for the club.

The club boat appeal has slowed down at the $500 mark — $1500 short of the target.

The club is hoping to have the boat in operation next season, and are looking forward to any donation, no matter how small.

A special general meeting of the club has been called for 7.30 p.m. on June 24.

The president (Mr. Roy Edwards), is looking forward to seeing parents and any individual who might be interested in taking part.

The club will be celebrating their 20th anniversary in August with a dinner dance.

Tickets are available from Mr. Roy Edwards on 398 1020, and Mr. Norm Slater on 396 2694.

Neck and neck basketball semi-final

A neck and neck struggle between Altona North High School and Tottenham Tech. 1 must make this semi final the most exciting game of the entire Western Suburbs Basketball competition.

The first half was pretty well determined with a 22 to 12 point lead in Tottenham Tech. one's favor.

But, things livened up in the second half with Altona North leading with five minutes to go and only one point in it in the final 30 seconds.

The final score was Altona North High 31 points to Tottenham Tech. one 34 points.

A big surprise came in the second semi-final between Footscray Youth Club and Altona North Technical School when FYC were defeated 38 points to 30 points.

It was FYC's first defeat of the series and came as a big surprise to learn that their position in the finals is not confirmed.

Top point scorers were: Tottenham Tech. 1 (Lee Heath 13, Alan Stonehand 13), Altona North High (Neil Duddy 10, Manfred Rokamper 6, Ken Evans 8) Altona North Tech. (Glen Wright 16, Jimmy Griens 10); Footscray Youth Club 15.

All games were refereed by Amateur Basketball Association referees, Brian Rogers and Ken Foote.

Tight table tennis win

By RAY BLYTHMAN

Altona's table tennis team travelled to Avondale Heights last week and turned on a brilliant display of table tennis against the home team to win 6-5.

Playing in the Avondale Heights Community Youth Club's new $42,000 youth centre, the A's adapted themselves quickly to the prevailing conditions.

From the first rubber it was evident that Altona were more than keen to register a win and move into the final four.

The A's scored in the opening singles rounds with wins to greatly improved Alan Evans, and veteran Niel Wynn, later they won the first doubles rubber to open up a handy lead.

Paul Morris and Niel Wynn scored again in the second singles round, but Avondale Heights came back with one singles and then the final doubles rubber to come back into calculations.

In the final series of three singles rubbers, Avondale Heights won two of the three rubbers.

However, Altona scored the one necessary rubber to clinch a thriller and put them only one game from fourth place. Final results were 6-5/14-15/557-558.

OTHER RESULTS
Bertrams Altona were back in winning form against Westerners and won easily at 9-2.

The head of the family team, Ed Bertram, was in devastating form, winning the maximum three rubbers, with the all-out attacking game.

As a result of the win, Bertrams are consolidated second place behind Williamstown Salvation Army.

C1 GRADE. — Altona's C1 team were defeated by Westerners at home, 9-2.

The game, which was played at the Western Suburbs Centre in Williamstown, was interesting throughout, with Les Reynolds' aggressive style earning two singles rubbers for the home team.

Team mates Kevin Reynolds and Trevor Taylor lacked a little in experience, and could not manage to break through the vastly improved Westerners' line-up, but were certainly not disgraced in losing 9-2.

D1 GRADE. — Altona Working Men's Club, playing at home lost to NOVA, the top team, 7-4.

They still retain second place ahead of Footscray High, by a reduced margin.

Best player for AWMC was penhold grip player Kevin Peachey.

UPSETS IN TENNIS

In the B grade singles competition at the Altona Tennis Club last weekend the first and second seeds Geoff Wood and David White were defeated.

Wood defeated David White 10-8, but was defeated by fourth seed Stephen Whitecross, who showboated with some beautiful cross-court shots to win 10-5.

The other upset of the day was the 10-9 defeat unseeded Graham Crofts handed out to third seed Graham Russell. Crofts held Russell's service after the scores reached 9-6 Russell's way.

He now goes on to play second seed Rex Snowling in the semi-final.

Results of the other matches were: Robertson d. L. Stracey 8-1; S. Whitecross-L. Hyde 8-2; J. Hayes-M. Keown 8-2; I. Collins-Y. Robertson d. A. Boyd-J. Young 9-3; S. Whitecross-G. Crofts d. D.
